Requisites for Admission.

Candidates for the Freshman Class are examined in the following studies :

ENGLISH—Grammar ; Reading ; and Spelling.

MATHEMATICS — Arithmetic, written and oral ; Ray's Higher Algebra, to Chapter VI. ; Three Chapters of Tappan's Geometry.

The candidate should be practiced in mental exercises in arithmetic, and should be acquainted with the decimal system of weights and measures.

MODERN GEOGRAPHY—Guyot's Intermediate.

LATIN — Grammar, including Prosody ; Arnold's Prose Composition, to Chapter VIII. ; Cæsar, Three Books ; Cicero, Four Orations against Cataline ; Virgil, Four Books of the Æneid.

Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar is preferred. The student should, in connection with the Grammar, study some elementary Reader, such as Arnold's First Latin Book, edited by Harkness. The exercises should be both written and repeated orally.

GREEK—Grammar, including Prosody ; Xenophon's Anabasis, Two Books ; Homer's Iliad, One Book.

After the year 1870, Three Books of the Anabasis.

Sophocles's Greek Grammar is preferred ; but Hadley's, Crosby's, and Bullions and Kendrick's (new edition) are all good. Some simple Reader, or Companion Book of Exercises, should be used, in connection with the Grammar.

ANCIENT GEOGRAPHY—Mitchell's.

ANCIENT HISTORY—Smith's History of Greece, Twelve Chapters; Liddell's History of Rome, Twenty-four Chapters.

History and Geography should be studied together. In reading Cæsar and Xenophon, there should be constant reference to the map.

MYTHOLOGY—A Hand-Book, such as Baird's Classical Manual, should be studied in connection with Virgil and Homer. A good Classical Dictionary and a Dictionary of Antiquities are necessary to every classical student.

Fair equivalents are received for any of the above-named books, or for parts of them. The books named serve to indicate the amount required.

If a student is further advanced in some studies than in others, he may enter the classes for which he is prepared. Opportunities are furnished to such irregular students to make up the defective study.

Candidates for advanced standing are examined in the studies previously pursued by the classes which they propose to enter.

Candidates for admission must present testimonials of good moral character; and if they come from other Colleges, certificates of dismission in good standing.

The regular Examination for admission to College takes place on the Monday preceding Commencement, beginning at 9 o'clock A.M. Another examination is held on the day before the opening of the Christmas Term, at the same hour. Students may be examined for an advanced standing at any time before the commencement of the second term of the Senior year.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The Commencement is held on the last Thursday in June.

The Terms are named from the principal ecclesiastical day which occurs near the close of each.

For particular dates, see the Calendar.

ATTENDANCE.

Students not in their places at the opening of the Term must show by written statements from their parents or guardians that the absence was necessary.

No student may be absent during the Term without leave. Parents and guardians are requested not to give their consent to any absence.

Students are required to attend Morning and Evening Prayers in the College Chapel, also the public Services on Sundays, and on the principal Holy-days of the Church.

MATRICULATION.

Matriculation gives accredited membership in the Institution, entitles the student to an honorable dismissal from the College, should he have occasion for it, and renders him a proper candidate for Degrees and Honors. No student is admitted to matriculation until he has sustained a satisfactory probation of one Term. For misconduct after matriculation, he may be reduced to the condition of a Probationer.

DEGREES.

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon all students in good standing who are approved at the final examinations of the Senior Class.

The Degree of Master of Arts is conferred upon all Bachelors of Arts of three years' standing, who have sustained an honorable reputation as scholars and alumni of the College. Application should be made to the President, either personally or by letter, as early as the Monday before Commencement. The fee, including the Diploma, for either Degree, is five dollars, payable in advance.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies, the Philomathesian and Nu Pi Kappa. The meetings are held every week, the exercises consisting principally of orations, essays, debates, and practice in extempore speaking. The Society Halls are very commodious and have been fitted up at great expense, occupying the whole of the second and third stories of the central portion of Ascension Hall. The Society Libraries occupy rooms on the first story of Kenyon Hall.

LIBRARIES.

The Libraries to which the students have access are as follows :

The Libraries of the Theological Seminary and College, containing about 8,500 volumes.

The Library of the Philomathesian Society, 4,732 volumes.

The Library of the Nu Pi Kappa Society, 4,617 volumes.

ASSISTANCE.

Students having the ministry in view are assisted on making the requisite application to the various Education Societies of the Church: The Education Committee of the Diocese of Ohio, the Evangelical Education Society, and the Society for the Increase of the Ministry. Tuition fees are remitted to the sons of Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese of Ohio. Meritorious students of the College or Grammar School, whose circumstances require it, may, at the discretion of the Faculty, engage in teaching, for which opportunity often occurs without the necessity of leaving Gambier.

The College fees of indigent and meritorious students may be remitted in part or in whole upon application.

EXPENSES.

Each room is sufficiently large and convenient to accommodate two students. The rooms are provided with stoves, and are neatly painted and papered by the College. No student will be allowed to room alone except by special permission.

The College bill is payable in advance, one-third at the beginning of each term. The charges for tuition, room rent and incidentals are $67 per annum. If a student occupies a whole room there is an additional charge of $5 per term for rent and $20 per annum for fuel. A fee of $5 is charged to every student at his matriculation. There are also some minor expenses, consisting of taxes voluntarily imposed by the students in their Classes and Literary Societies, and the expenses at graduation. When a student is absent for a Term, and is afterwards, upon examination, allowed to go on with his class, tuition is charged for the time of his absence. Room rent is charged when a room is reserved for a student.

Fuel is supplied by the Agent of the College, and must be paid for in advance, at the same time with the bill for tuition. The charge is $20 per annum.

Board can be obtained either in clubs or in private houses. The price of board is at present, in clubs, about $3.00; in private houses, $4.00 per week. The expense for washing is $15 to $20 per year, and for lights $4 to $8.

The rooms are furnished with stoves; but students provide for themselves beds, furniture, lights, books, stationery and washing. Furniture may be bought at second hand, and the expense incurred by its use will not be great.

Parents are advised not to allow their sons a greater amount of money than is sufficient to pay the ordinary and reasonable expenses.

Course of Study and Regulations.

The design of this school is principally to prepare students for admission to College. The course of study is, therefore, such as is required by the College; see pages 10 and 11.

Classes are formed in Book-keeping and other branches, for the benefit of those students who do not wish to pursue the regular College course.

As a general rule pupils are required to room in Milnor Hall, where they are under the immediate charge of the Principal. Such pupils supply the furniture of their own rooms, but the rooms are taken care of, and fuel and light are supplied, at the expense of the school. The pupils board in the village, or, by special agreement, in the family of the Principal. The older pupils may receive permission to lodge away from Milnor Hall.

The Terms and Vacations are the same as in Kenyon College.

For a small fee, students can have the use of the College Society Libraries. The two Literary Societies of the Grammar School have good rooms in the new building.

EXPENSES.

Bills for pupils rooming at Milnor Hall, for all school charges, including tuition, $105 per annum—$40 for the first term, $35 for the second, and $30 for the third.

Tuition of day pupils, $12 per term.

No incidental fee is charged, but each pupil is required to deposit with the Treasurer five dollars at the beginning of the term. After deducting from this the expense of repairing such damage as is done by that pupil, the balance is returned at the end of the term.

All bills must be paid at the beginning of each term, and no deduction is made for absence during a term, unless caused by sickness.

As the rooms are large enough to accommodate two pupils each, no one is allowed to room alone except upon payment of an extra charge for room rent, fuel, lights, and care of room.

Students having the ministry in view, and others, are assisted as in the case of College students; see page 15.

TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS.

Parents and Guardians are requested to give effect to the following rules in the case of all younger pupils:

1. Send pocket money directly to the Principal, to be by him paid over to the pupil, naming the amount you wish allowed—subject to the discretion of the Principal.
2. Do not remit to the pupil directly for any purpose.
3. Settle all school bills with the Treasurer directly.
4. Forbid your ward to contract debts.

It is desirable that each pupil possess his own Bible and Prayer Book.

ADMISSION.

Any Candidate for Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States may, on examination, be received as a Student in the Seminary; and any other person who may give sufficient evidence of a fair moral and religious character.

EXAMINATIONS.

Candidates for admission, not Bachelors of Arts, must pass a satisfactory examination in the Latin language, and in classical and Hellenistic Greek, in the general principles of Natural, Intellectual, and Moral Philosophy, and Rhetoric. They will also be required to read an Original Composition.

Under proper restrictions, and under the direction of the Faculty, students may avail themselves of the facilities furnished by Milnor Hall Grammar School and Kenyon College, to prepare to enter the Seminary, without a Diploma. In this case, a certificate from the College Faculty, that they have successfully pursued the required studies, will be accepted in lieu of an examination. Candidates for the Ministry who take this course must exhibit the permission of their Bishop.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing must pass an examination in all the studies which the class they desire to enter has pursued.

A public examination of each class is held previous to the Annual Commencement; and certificates are awarded to those who, on the final examination, are found to have successfully pursued the full course of study.

MATRICULATION.
